It was now a perfectly ordinary morning in Brockton Bay. The sun was shining, the birds were singing, gangs ganged, police policed, Wards warded, Coil coiled, the Bay's Nazis were neither national nor practiced socialism (they were clearly being capitalist!), and Taylor decided on what powers she'd have that day.

I felt like I had to make this post after reading a post where someone basically asked if pathfinder still has an appeal. Now before I start I should point out that this post is not me just trashing on D&D 5e, I used to absolutely adore the system and I understand why so many people like it and I still don't dislike it or anything like that.
